

DECCAN CONSULTING CORP.

We build solutions with myriad of technologies

Customers

Expect to see fully qualified engineers, developers and project managers for your projects. You can rest assured that we value time and have streamlined the operations of our consulting business around conserving time... yours and ours. We pre-qualify all of our employees to make sure they are the best for the projects that we undertake before they ever hit your inbox.

Employees

We respond quickly and effectively to solve problems, and our skills and experience allow us to provide innovative solutions for our client's unique business and mission critical challenges. We are also extremely dedicated to our employees and, as a result, have a high level of employee retention. Ultimately, our management's commitment yields successful, long-term relationships with both our clients and employees.

Expect us to treat you like the 'subject matter experts' that you are. We recognize that to be best in the industry we have to attract, hire and retain the best talent there is. And for that reason we are committed to be a global player in technology innovation and to follow our 'Core Values' and 'business principles' to the fullest in letter and in spirit.

We listen to employee and customer needs

Hiring the most qualified professionals to work in strong companies is a people intensive process. The Internet has revolutionized job searching, but professionals who think innovatively out-of-the-box are scattered around the country and across the globe and we will have to reach out and attract them to work on our cutting edge projects, as a result our hiring process is very intensive and global.

We have grown to learn that continuous un-hindered real-time communications with our customers and across our organization results into multi-fold productivity improvements that helps retain customers that reach out to us for future consulting assignments.
